

Southeastern Legal Foundation Donor Privacy Policy

Southeastern Legal Foundation respects the privacy of our donors and their choice not to have personal information shared with others. The Foundation does not and will not sell, rent, or trade donor information to organizations that use such information for commercial purposes.

On occasion, the Foundation allows selected nonprofits to use our lists on a blind, one-time-only basis in return for the same from those organizations. This helps Southeastern Legal Foundation to grow. Our donors may instruct that we exclude their information from any list that we share. This applies to both online and offline donors and covers all donor information, including email and physical addresses and telephone numbers. All such requests will be implemented as soon as possible. Please contact SLF VP of Philanthropy, Jamie McPherson at (770) 977-2132, or by email at jmcperson@southeasternlegal.org. Or by mail at: Southeastern Legal Foundation, 560 West Crossville Rd, Suite 104, Roswell, GA 30075.

Changes to Donor Privacy Policy

Southeastern Legal Foundation reserves the right to change the policy on use of information collected. Any changes in policy will be noted in a revised policy statement and will be posted at least 30 days prior to implementation.
